10. Transferring personal data outside the European Economic Area (EEA)

10.1 We may transfer the personal data we collect about you to the USA which is outside of the EEA in order to perform our contract with you. This may happen if you use Cloud software, or we choose to do so in performing our contract with you. This is due to some Cloud software providers holding their servers in the USA. We may also engage in other IT services for efficiency purposes, the providers of which may also hold their servers outside of the EU.

10.2 There is an adequacy decision, made by the European Commission, in relation to the USA which entities can adopt in order that they are deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for your personal information for the purpose of the Data Protection Legislation.

10.3 Where relevant, we have obtained written confirmation from the software providers, that they have in place equivalent security measures to those applicable in the EU and have ensured that our contract with the software providers contain E.U. model data protection clauses.

10.4 From 1 January 2021 the UK has left the EU and the UK government has indicated that transfers of data from the UK to the EU can continue without additional protections being in place as EU countries are deemed to have an adequate level of data protection per section 17A of the Data Protection Act 2018.

10.5 Should you require further information about this please contact us using the contact details outlined below.

11. Data security

11.1 We have put in place commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

11.2 We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

12. Rights of access, correction, erasure, and restriction

12.1 Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Should your personal information change, please notify us of any changes of which we need to be made aware by contacting your usual Albert Goodman/Albert Goodman Lewis contact or by email to: gdpr@albertgoodman.co.uk

12.2 Your rights in connection with personal data

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data. This enables you to receive details of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are processing it lawfully.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this basis. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or another data controller if the processing is based on consent, carried out by automated means and this is technically feasible.

12.3 If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please email our data protection point of contact sophie.parkhouse@albertgoodman.co.uk or gdpr@albertgoodman.co.uk

12.4 You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

12.5 We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

13. Right to withdraw consent

13.1 In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose (for example, in relation to direct marketing that you have indicated you would like to receive from us), you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please email: gdpr@albertgoodman.co.uk

13.2 Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your personal information (personal data) for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.
